Education Foundation offers Jefferson and Kennedy Senior Scholarships

Applications for Education Foundation of Bloomington scholarships now are available for Jefferson and Kennedy seniors in the school counselors' offices. The foundation plans to award up to 20 Senior Scholarships valued at $500 to $1,000 each for post-secondary education in May.

“Scholarship awards are based on academic record, school activities, community service and overall student conduct,” said Laura Schmit, EFB scholarship committee chair. “Bloomington can be proud of these well-prepared scholars and their willingness to work hard for success in academics, careers and community life,” said Schmit.

Completed scholarship applications are due in counselors' offices at 3 p.m., Friday, April 11. In addition to the application form, students must submit their academic transcript, a 200-word personal statement, student aid report and a faculty member's letter of recommendation.

Previous donors include Bloomington Federation of Teachers; Bloomington Food Service Assn.; Donaldson Company Foundation; friends and family of Kathryn Dewey and Charlotte Lehman; Bloomington Parent-Teacher-Student Assn., Bloomington Noon Rotary Club; Micron Molding and EFB's Board of Directors.
