

For immediate use
July 29, 2010

Chip In for Schools Golf Classic tees up at Dwan Golf Course Aug 10

There's still time to chip in for schools in the Education Foundation of Bloomington's annual golf tournament at Dwan Golf Course on Wednesday, Aug. 10, with tee-off at 1 p.m. Entry fee is $120 per player, which includes golf cart, lunch, prizes and contests followed by a silent auction and awards dinner at Minnesota Valley Country Club.

"The Chip In for Schools Golf Classic is the foundation's major fundraiser and provides Classroom Innovation Grants that enable our teachers to explore and evaluate new, creative instructional ideas in Bloomington's classrooms," said Mary Udseth, tournament director.

The tournament's title sponsor is Mark Parrish, Jefferson alumnus and professional hockey player. Other sponsorship support comes from many community organizations and Bloomington businesses. Openings remain for both four-member teams and individuals who would like to golf in the tournament. Please contact Mary Udseth at 952-334-8412 for more information.

Jean Kindem 4/15/11 8:12 AM

Deleted: -